Press Release

Roudebush Grading Announces New Partnership with Local 120 Roudebush Makes Strategic Move for Future Progress

Indianapolis, June 18, 2008: Roudebush Grading, Inc. today announced that they have signed an agreement with Laborers Local 120 as part of an aggressive new strategy to push into developing markets in the Central Indiana construction industry.

Roudebush was started in 1996 and has focused primarily on the commercial grading, seeding, erosion control, and landscaping markets. However, since signing the new agreement with Laborers Local 120, Roudebush intends to move into the continually developing Indiana Heavy Highway market.

Jason Bezy, President of Roudebush Grading, says of the company's new direction, "Roudebush Grading has built a solid reputation over the past 13 years that we've been in business. However, to sustain our current growth we needed to think strategically and take the company in a new direction. This is a strategic partnership that will be beneficial to the company, our workers, and the state of Indiana."

David Frye, Business Manager of Local 120, commented on the new partnership with Roudebush, "Roudebush is a great company with a solid reputation. We look forward to an excellent working relationship that benefits both parties." Laborers Local 120 represents over 2400 workers in Central Indiana.

Jason Bezy and Roudebush Grading can be contacted via telephone at: 317-770-9970. Roudebush corporate headquarters is located at: 17155 Harger Court, Noblesville, Indiana.
